Program Notes

Classical

Age of the Organ

KXLU's award-winning and long-time favorite, with host Rene Marceau appearing Friday nights at 7 pm. Age of the Organ combines the history of "the King of Instruments" and its music, with the artistry of great modern performers.

America in Concert

Weekly concerts by different symphony orchestras throughout the United States. Join us in our musical travels, each Wednesday at 8 pm, as we survey the range and quality of America's local music productions.

BBC Concert Hall

The great orchestras of Britain are featured in live weekly performances, Fridays at 8 pm.

Baltimore Symphony Orchestra

Weekly concerts from one of America's fine orchestras. Under the baton of Music Director Sergiu Commissiona, the Baltimore Orchestra brings great music and guest artists to KXLU listeners each Tuesday evening at 9 pm.

Dawn of the Classics

On this listeners' favorite of 88.9 FM, Victor Berrellez surveys the origins and expansion of classical music, from a monophonic art to instrumental polyphony. Thursdays at 7 pm.

Del Rey Concert

A weekly concert program of full length orchestral performances, solo and chamber works, and featuring the presentation of the finest in recent recording releases the first Thursday of each month. Tom Reynolds hosts this program on Thursday nights at 9 pm.

First Hearing

New recordings are auditioned by a panel of nationally known critics and performers. Lloyd Moss hosts, Tuesdays at Seven.

In Recital

The music of great individual artists and chamber ensembles, presented in live recital each week in productions from the BBC. Thursdays at 8 pm.

Musical Heritage Spotlight

Rene Marceau hosts this popular favorite, as he presents a wide range of classical music made available to KXLU by the Musical Heritage Society. Wednesdays at 7 pm.

New Releases From . . .

Eve Gampel hosts this weekly look at recent issues and reissues in recorded classical music. Tuesdays at 8 pm.

Opera Close-Up

KXLU presents weekly full-length operas each Monday night at eight, immediately following the Vocal Scene, with Eva Gampel.

The Six O'Clock Programme

Host Nestor Pereira provides music for the dinner hour, primarily from the Baroque and Classical eras, as KXLU opens each evening of fine arts programming.

Sunday Concert

The finest in classical music selected by you, the listener. Your host is Victor Berrellez. The Request Line is 642-2957.

Steinway Hour

Weekly piano recitals featuring world renowned artists. Wednesdays at 9 pm.

Vocal Scene

George Jaellineck hosts this award-winning and nationally syndicated look at the world of operas, as it originates from behind the curtain and in the minds of its composers. Mondays at 7 pm.

Specialty and Rock

Alma del Barrio

A fast-paced bilingual presentation of Latin jazz, salsa, community information and a Weekend Calendar of Entertainment and Events. Saturdays and Sundays from 7 am to 7 pm.

Blasts from the Past

The rock classics of the 50's, 60's and 70's, as hosted each Thursday night by Joe Caruso.

Ear of the Indies

The best in Reggae, Calypso, and music from the Carribean, Saturday nights at 7 pm.

The Folk Show

Hosted by Brian May this show can be heard at 9:30 pm on Friday evenings.

LIONS BASKETBALL RETURNS TO KXLU!

KXLU is pleased to announce the return of Loyola Marymount University Basketball to its airwaves. The Lions' entire schedule will be broadcast exclusively on 88.9 FM.

The broadcasts will begin fifteen (15) minutes before game time with The Lions' Pregame Show. The voice of Lions' basketball this year will be Mike Davison, a two-year veteran of the broadcast team. Davison will be assisted by Mike Pipich, this year's color commentator.

LMU's basketball team promises to provide much excitement for you, the listener. In the hope of improving on last year's disappointing 3-24 record, Coach Ed Goorjian will have a plus in the newest member of the squad, his son Greg. Greg Goorjian was a high school All-American at Crescenta Valley, and a starter at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The Lions will also have three returning freshman starters in Forrest McKenzie, Johnny Brown, and Leonard Agee.

The Lions promise to be an interesting team to watch. The schedule includes games against such top flight competition as Idaho, UC Irvine, USC, and WCAC Champion Pepperdine. We hope you'll enjoy listening as KXLU Sports presents the finest in intercollegiate sports.

Sincerely

Paul Sheet
Sports Director
