LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

March 30, 1978

SUMMER FUND-RAISER

The past year has been a good one for KXLU, and we hope that our efforts to expand and improve our programming have pleased you. The year has seen added hours of fine arts broadcasting, program highlights such as The St. Louis Symphony series, Music of the Russian Masters, and Igor Stravinsky: The Man and His Music, and the continuation of long running favorites like Sunday Concert, Age of the Organ, Dawn of the Classics and Alma del Barrio. Finally, last month KXLU inaugurated another major programming improvement, with the addition of such nationally syndicated programs as BBC Concert Hall, In Recital, Vocal Scene, and the Friday Night Special.

Throughout all of these changes and developments, our goal has been to serve you, our listeners, better than ever by offering a quality alternative in Los Angeles radio. To continue doing so, we need your help. As last year, KXLU is devoting May to the goal of raising funds for summer broadcasting.

We realize that you have been asked over and over for contribution for one cause or another, particularly by other Los Angeles radio stations. But we believe our request is different. Our appeal is not geared to supplement the funding of the federal government. Very simply, we are asking your support to allow our all-volunteer, student staff to continue serving you by broadcasting throughout the summer months.

Our appeal is also different in that we will not interrupt programming in any way with marathons or annoying pitches. And whether or not you choose to donate to KXLU at this time, The Program Guide will remain free for all listeners.

We are serious about our service to you as the quality alternative on the FM dial. To continue doing so, we need your help. Please consider this investment in your summer listening by joining with the people at KXLU-FM.

Thank-you,

Ralph L. Amendola
